

to the class of 72

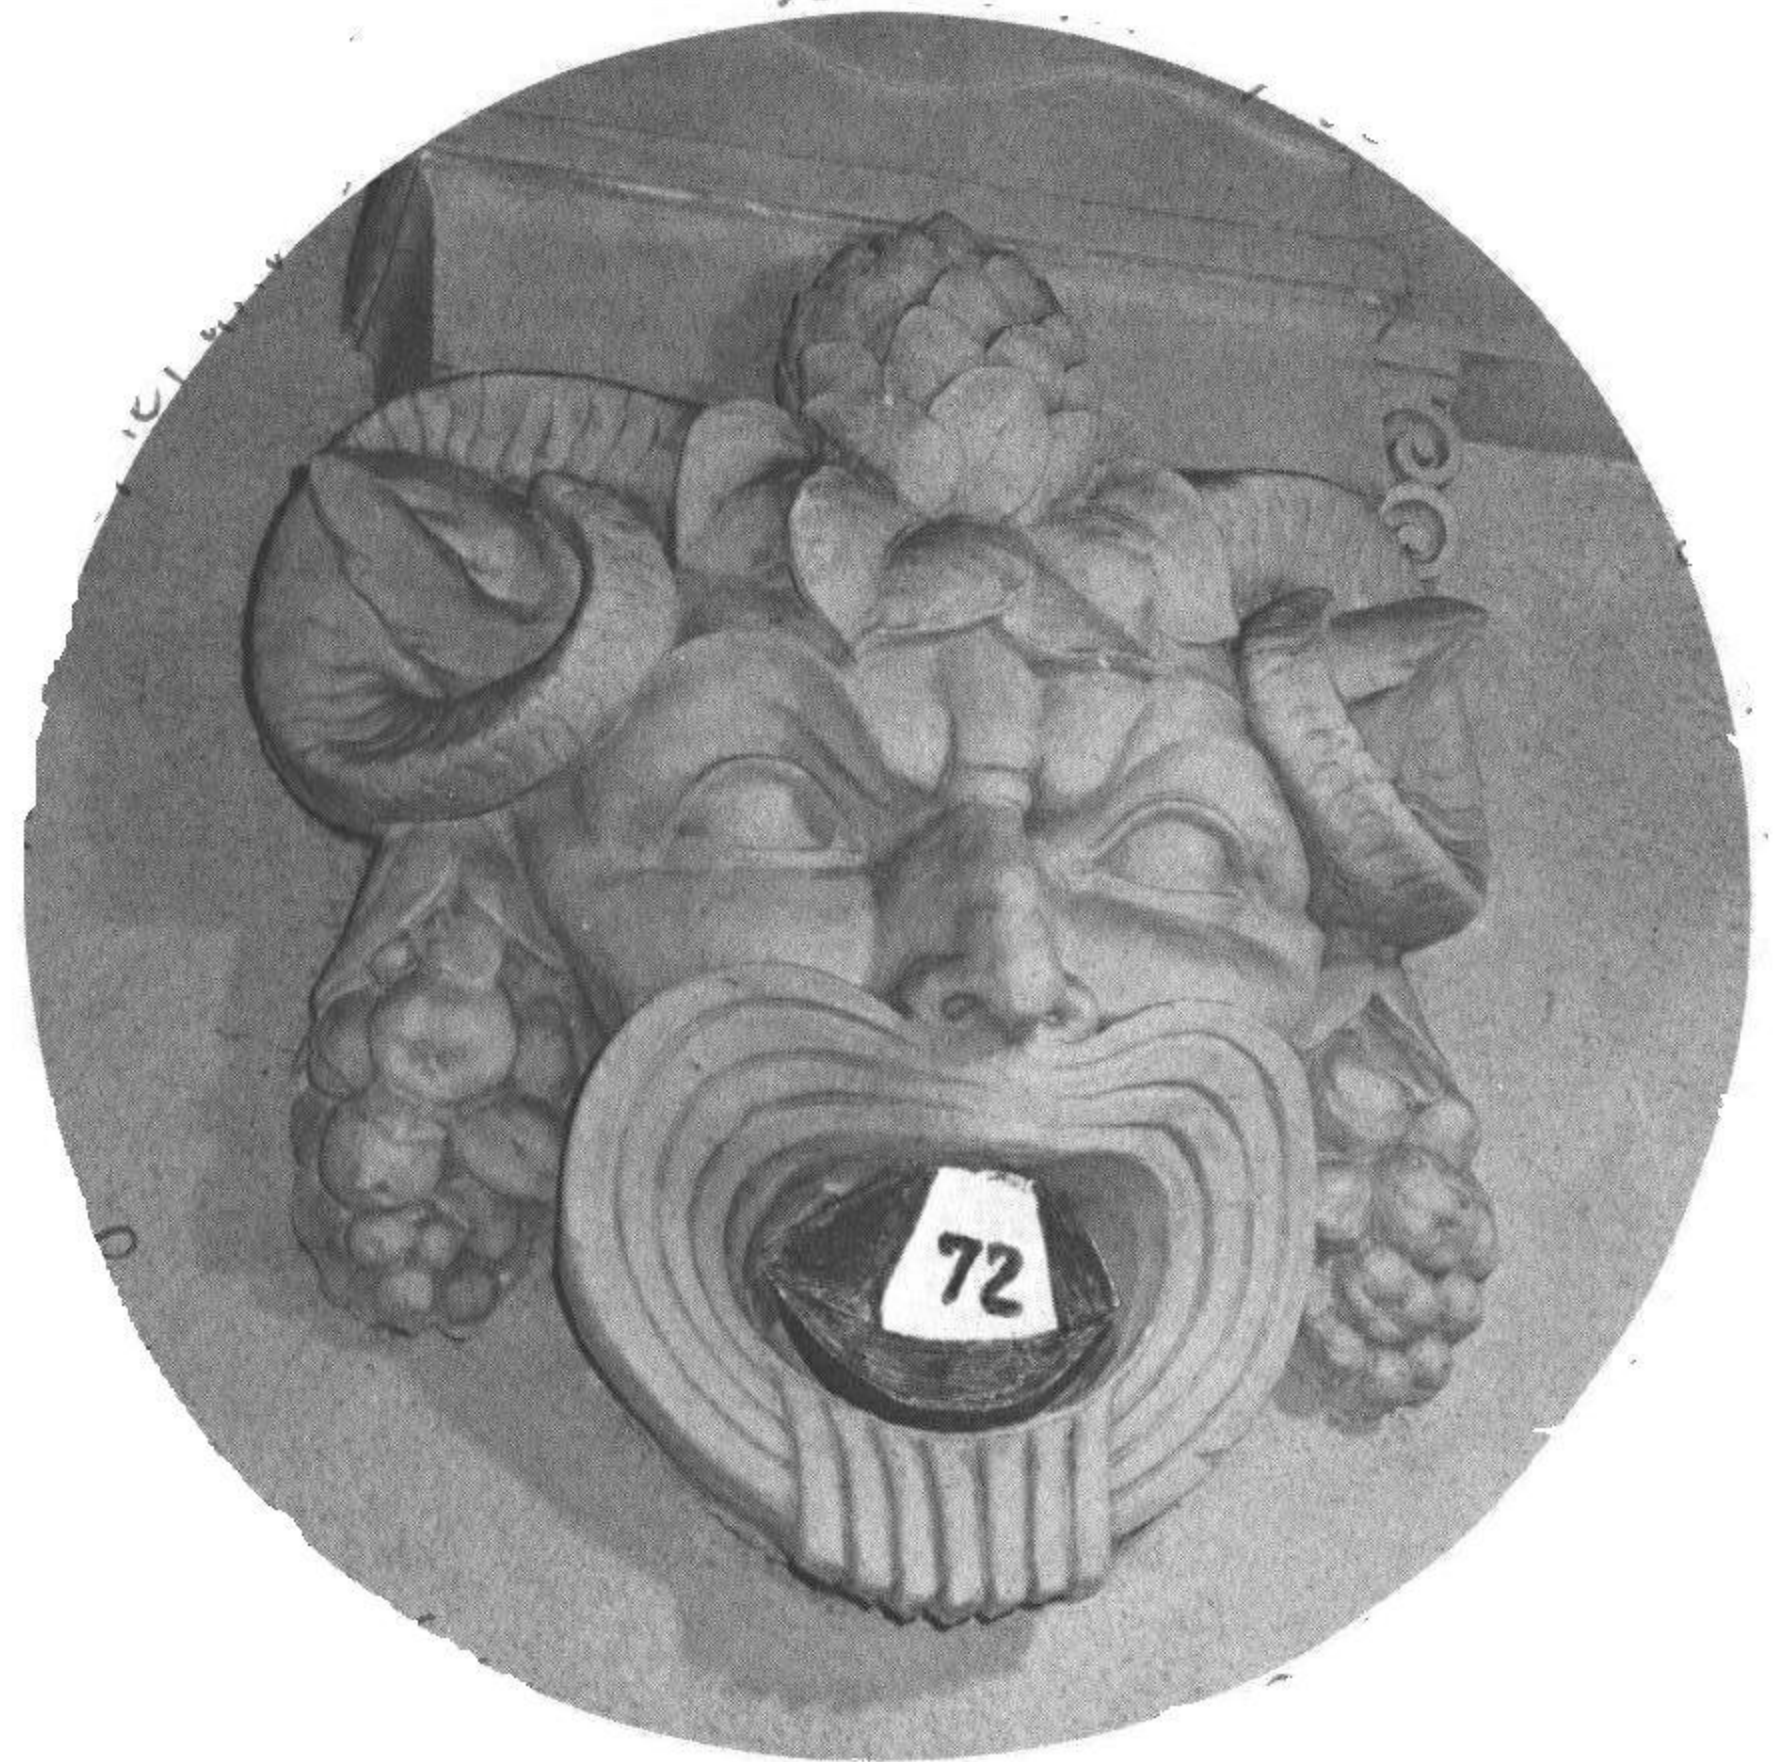

To all members of the Class of 1972:

You are the first graduates of Benjamin Franklin Senior High School. With this distinction goes a great deal of responsibility. Your teachers have tried to show you how to learn, work and live together. The knowledge and skills they have taught you will provide the resources and strength needed to help you to find answers to questions and to solve problems you will face in the future.

On behalf of the entire faculty and staff I wish you every success.

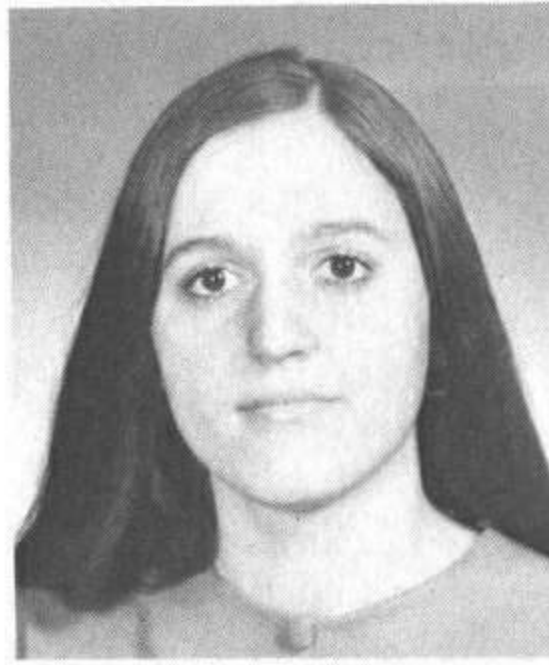

Sincerely,

Pincus Cohen
Principal

Last Will & Testament

Senior High School the remains of the class of MCMLXXII.

To Whom It May Concern, We Leave, . . .

To Mr. Cohen—A course in color coordination and interior decorating, a gallon of plaid paint for his office and a million dollars.

To Mr. McGuire—½ day schedule on Sundays and a pair of Red Ball Jet sneakers to keep up with the rat race.

To Mr. Lacey—A seedless frog.

To Mrs. Fauth—Two nights a week to practice alone.

To Mr. Wilson—Buddababgee Guru garb and 2 nights a week to teach yoga positions.

To Miss Pecoraro—A deck of playing cards, handwritten in Latin by Elvis Presley.

To Mr. Brown—A free breakfast at Uncle John's Pancake House for all the ones he missed.

To Mr. Hanson—A 12 foot cheese conolli, a year in sin with the woman of his choice, and a finished conversation.

To Mr. Youmans—(Mr. Enthusiasm) A copy of the "Undried Raisins of Indignation", an 8½ hour, Andy Warhol movie of Orson Welle's naval, and a big Celebration on June 16.

To Mr. Siegal—A parachute for his 6 a.m. exursions on the fourth floor roof.

To Mr. Duell—A tape of "Heavy" and other groovy sayings and Aleta to lure some Art Faculty to Dept. meetings.

To Mr. Santangelo—A dictionary consisting only of relevant, irrelevant, and barbaric.

To Miss Rossi—A copy of Sex and the Single Man, and a night out with Paul Newman.

To Mr. Pasquarella—A little peace and quiet.

To Mr. Wirschem—Beethoven's bust.

To Mr. Lourette—A condemned sticker before the Board of Health gets to his room, a stick of Imperial Margarine for the crown he deserves, and a Captain Clean-up membership card.

To Miss Denaro—We leave, . . .

To Mr. Hayden—A book of elevator passes for his hikes up to the 4th floor, and grass seed to plant on his busy street.

To Mr. Evangelista—A tape of Para Manana so he doesn't have to exasperate himself saying it every day.

To Mr. Searles—A book on the care and feeding of fo-paws and a street directory containing back roads and old deserted houses.

To Mrs. Suydam—A full year's subscription to the Roller Derby and a skate key.

To Mr. Kramer—A new lock in case he decides to throw away the KEY and 4 more enthusiastic seniors to put together next years' yearbook.

To Mr. Sapperstone—4 more enthusiastic seniors to work on the Couant.

Who, What, When, Where, Why, and MRS. HOWE? Someday we will all know.

To Mr. Barrett—A non-effort diet and a 15 foot ladder.

To Mrs. Murphy—A class who doesn't play with the typewriters and a box of donut holes.

To Mr. Perham—An invisible wearever bandaid.

To Miss Kaye—A 4 week honeymoon and many happy returns.

To the Spirit of 76, we leave a flute, a drum, a flag and a box of bandaids for wounds rendered.

To the Class of 75, we leave a paperback yearbook.

To the Class of 74, we leave a 3 year supply of ring cleaner and a junior ring dance.

To the Class of 73, we leave our Senior lounge, balcony, other fringe benefits and Wile E. Coyote.
